FOURTH WARD CLUB. - The Tilden and Hendricks Club of the Fourth Ward met last night at the Friendship engine house, S. C. Neale, President, in the chair, and Jno. M. Johnson, Secretary.

It was unanimously resolved that the Club hold a grand ratification meeting at the corner of King and St. Asaph streets, to be preceded by a torenlight procession, on the night of the 18th of October, and the President was requested to lavite the other Ward Clubs to par-

On motion a committee of three on collection was appointed, consisting of John M. Johnson, B. W. Nails and Martin Lawler, and a committee of ten on arrangements, consisting of Messrs. Ruid, Travis, Loyd, Wheatly, Sweeny, Goodrich, Taliaferro, Johnson, Nightingili and

The meeting then adjourned to meet at the at eight o'clock.

You Kippur -Tuis evening, at 6 o'clock, which, according to the Hebrew calendar, is the beginning of the tenth day of the seventh month, which is known as Tishri in the Hebrew year, the great day of aton m ont, or You | the late James Roach. Kippur," will commence. Hebrews, who throughout the year are the most lukewarm in the observance of the r religion, do not disregard this lay of days, but sacredly observe and commemorate it. In the evening at 6 o'clock the observers of the fast will repair to the a surveying cruise in the Mediterranean. Synagogue, and from that time till the blowing of the "Snofer," which occurs at sunset tomorrow, every Israelite is required to abstain from either eating or drinking. Many of the more orthodox Hebrews will not even wash their face or hands during the fast, for fear that they may accidentally get water in their mouths. Before entering the synagogue they them. divest themselves of all metallic ornaments or jewelry of any description. While worship ping they wrap themselves in a long white robe or "Taith," which is fringed at the ends and divest themselves of their shoes, worshipping in their stocking feet.

"There is nothing new to report in the condition of the canal. Water is being let into it through the lock and feeder at this city as rap idly as possible, and it is thought that the levels will be filled by to morrow right.

"Empty boats might pass over the canal to morrow, but it is not probable that they will be allowed to come to this port until the load ed ones have cleared, as there is not room for them at the wharves or basins."

this morning, and it will be ready for the passage of boats by to-night.

THE RAILROADS. - As was stated yesterday, the repairs to the main line of the Virginia Midland Railroad will be sufficiently completed by to-morrow to allow the p.s-age of trains through from this city to Danville. A large load of presengers went up this morning and were transferred around the break, near Union Mass The repairs to the Manassas line are not yet completed, but after those to the main line are finished a larger force of men will be put on and the work pushed through. The other railroads are all in their usual good condition and trains are ruoning regularly.

THE SQUALL YESTERDAY .- The gale of wind which came up so suddenly from the northwest yesterday evening made quite a commotion among the vessels and steamers on the river and most of them had to make things spug at once. The steamer Mary Washington, which was caught near Fort Foote, had several small stools and other light articles blown overboard, and the ladies on board were badly frightened. She breasted the gale, however, and arrived at her wharf here without damage.

OVERBOARD. - A small sloop containing a party of men from Washington, while on her return from this to that city last evening was struck by a flaw and careened so much that one of her occupants whose equilibrium had to F A Reed been somewhat disturbed by too much whiskey, was thrown overboard and very narrowly escaped drowning. The sloop was gotten around however and one of his companions jumped overboard and saved him.
